Special Information

U. S. PATENT OFFICE

The prices quoted in this catalog supersede all previous issues, and are quoted F.O.B. Wisconsin Factory.

Statues can only be furnished in sizes shown in this catalog, but if sufficient time is available, new models may be prepared in other sizes. Prices for such special models in composition, or imported in genuine marble or wood carvings, gladly quoted on request.

Statues, Angels and Groups can be decorated in various finishes, the most popular being:

DECORATION No. 40 — Usually described as "Two-tone Ivory and Flesh Parts." In this decoration, all faces and flesh parts are finished in natural colors, while the garments are in two shades of ivory with gold trimmings, in either Rich or Extra Rich.

DECORATION No. 50 — Usually described as "Natural Colors." In this decoration all faces and flesh parts are finished in natural colors, the garments also in natural traditional colors, with gold trimmings, in either Rich or Extra Rich.

RICH AND EXTRA RICH —

These two styles of decoration differ only in the style of the gold border. Rich designates a narrow gold stripe usually shown near the edge of the garments. Extra Rich is a wider and more ornamental gold border.

CRYSTAL EYES —

The addition of Crystal Eyes adds to the beauty of a statue or group, and will be placed in the statue at the following additional prices:

	Statues without Infant	Statues with Infant		Statues without Infant	Statues with Infant

A black and white photograph of a large, rectangular, metallic object, likely a reliquary or a large lock, with a central circular opening and a small rectangular slot on the left side. The object is inscribed with the Latin text "SANCTUS + SANCTUS + SANCTUS" along the top edge. The central circular opening contains a small, dark, rectangular object, possibly a relic. The object is shown from a slightly elevated, angled perspective.
